BIOGRAPHY

Mr. Alper has worked in large, medium and small firms in addition to having a successful business career as an entrepreneur and CEO in a public company. He provides a concierge-like practice, ranging from transactional management and execution to litigation management. His background as a tax lawyer provides an added dimension to complex tax equity deals and other business and estate planning matters. He often tells his non-lawyer client's, "I am your partner that went to law school."

For over 35 years, Mr. Alper has led, negotiated, managed and closed dozens of mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, equity and debt investments, service and licensing arrangements, and other strategic transactions as well as numerous settlements of complex commercial litigations.
