BIOGRAPHY

Mr. Ziff's practice focuses on personal injury litigation, including auto accidents, premises liability, slip and falls, and medical malpractice claims. Additionally, he handles professional negligence claims, real estate litigation, and provides general counsel services to a diverse array of businesses. With extensive experience in both state and federal courts, he is adept at handling jury trials, bench trials, administrative claims, and appeals, ensuring that his clients receive comprehensive representation at every stage of the legal process.

Mr. Ziff's role as general counsel extends to guiding companies through the intricate processes of minority and disadvantaged business certification. He has a proven track record of helping businesses achieve certifications through the State of Maryland, District of Columbia, and the Federal Small Business Administration.

Prior to practicing law, Mr. Ziff served in the National Guard, worked as a Park Ranger, and gained valuable experience as a Legal Extern for the U.S. Army Judge Advocate General Office. This diverse background enables him to connect deeply with his clients, understanding their unique challenges and working tirelessly to find the best solutions for their needs.
