

Joseph D. Douglass

SENIOR COUNSEL

jdouglass@whitefordlaw.com

WASHINGTON, COLUMBIA

T: 202.659.6779

BIOGRAPHY

Mr. Douglass has more than 35 years' experience advising on condominiums, housing cooperatives and planned communities throughout Maryland and the District of Columbia. The author of state and local legislation and regulations concerning community associations, he is a nationally recognized course leader on legal aspects of community associations. He serves as Counsel to the D.C. Cooperative Housing Coalition.

MEMBERSHIPS & ACTIVITIES

- Member: District of Columbia Bar, Maryland State Bar Association, Montgomery County Bar Association
- Member: Legal faculty of the Community Associations Institute's National Professional Management Development Program
- Past President: Washington Metropolitan Chapter, Community Associations Institute
- Past Member: Maryland Governor's Commission on Condominiums, Cooperatives and Homeowner Associations.

PRACTICES & INDUSTRIES

Community Associations

EDUCATION

University of Pennsylvania, 1977,
J.D.

University of Michigan, 1974,
A.B., with distinction

ADMISSIONS

Maryland

District of Columbia

- Fellow and Charter Member: College of Community Association Lawyers