BIOGRAPHY

Ms. Nwangwu is an attorney in the firm's Community Associations practice group and represents community associations, nonprofit organizations, and businesses in litigation, governance, and real estate-related matters. Her practice includes advising condominium and homeowners associations on covenant enforcement, collections, governance, developer transition, and amendment of governing documents. Ms. Nwangwu also represents clients in state and federal litigation, including contract disputes, injunctive proceedings, and complex civil rights matters. She has experience drafting and arguing motions, managing discovery, conducting legal research, and advising clients through mediation and alternative dispute resolution.

Her experience includes an in-house legal internship with Burlington Stores, Inc. She also has real estate litigation experience, including residential foreclosures, breach of contract, and zoning disputes. While in law school, she was a member of the Thurgood Marshall National Trial Team and a Student Attorney in the Eviction Prevention Clinic.
