

Bankruptcy: Northeast

Day Pitney LLP
 Lowenstein Sandler PC
 Mintz, Levin, Cohn, Ferris,
 Glovsky and Popeo, P.C.
 WilmerHale

1

Blank Rome LLP
 Cole, Schotz, Meisel, Forman & Leonard
 Duane Morris LLP
 Hangley Aronchick Segal & Pudlin
 Pepper Hamilton LLP
 Whiteford, Taylor & Preston, LLP

2

Archer & Greiner, a Professional Corporation
 Eckert Seamans Cherin & Mellott, LLC
 Gibbons P.C.
 Hanify & King
 Riker, Danzig, Scherer, Hyland & Perretti
 Sills Cummis Epstein & Gross P.C.

3

PRACTICE: Whiteford, Taylor & Preston, LLP's Baltimore-headquartered bankruptcy practice has expanded and now houses four attorneys in Wilmington. Two experienced lawyers joined the Falls Church, Virginia office in March 2009, one as partner and one as counsel.

In February 2009, the practice succeeded in claims against the former directors and certain officers of the Rowe Companies and its subsidiaries, which resulted in a $6.6m settlement in favor of the Chapter 7 bankruptcy trustee.

CLIENTS: The practice has acted as debtors' counsel in Chapter 11 reorganizations for Sunterra Corporation and Carpet Fair, and for creditors' committees in Valu Food and Parks Sausages.

INDIVIDUALS: Baltimore-based Paul Nussbaum, the practice chair, is 'a consummate strategist and negotiator with an excellent grasp of the law'. Also in Baltimore, Kevin Hroblak, who led in the Rowe instruction, has considerable expertise in the investigation and pursuit of malpractice and professional liability claims. He is 'an excellent negotiator, and always extremely well-prepared'.